

SoundToxins Workshop

April 29, 2013

Northwest Fisheries Science Center Auditorium

9:00 – 3:00

New participants

Agenda

9:00 – 9:10	Vera Trainer	Welcome and goals of workshop
9:10 – 10:40	Rita Horner	Phytoplankton introduction and identification
10:40 – 11:00	Dennis Tanji	Microscope set up, care & cleaning
11:00 – 11:30		Break
11:30 – 12:30	Brian or Karlista	SoundToxins methods
12:30-2:30	Brian Bill & Dr. Horner	Identifying the HAB species, using the counting chamber, relative abundance and counting practice.
2:30 – 2:40		Break (Show TABs on HABs video)
2:40 to 3:20	Dennis Tanji	More practice with identification. For those with Motic cameras, we will spend time on getting your camera to work. (Please bring your laptop computer and Motic camera if you have one)
3:30		Adjourn for the day

April 30, 2012
Northwest Fisheries Science Center Auditorium
9:00 – 4:00

All SoundToxins participants

Agenda

9:00 – 9:20 Vera Trainer	Welcome to new members, introductions of all participants, goals of meeting
9:20 – 10:00 Jerry Borchert	2012 Biotoxin Review and Recent DSP issues
10:00 – 10:50 Neil Harrington	2012 review of DSP in Sequim Bay
10:50 – 11:00	Break (Possible press interviews and filming)
11:00 – 12:00 Teri, Brian Karlista, Zach	Review of SoundToxins methods including microscope practice
12:00 – 12:30 Stephanie Moore	Lunch (please bring a bag lunch) “Puget Sound AHAB project & ESP deployment”
12:30 - 1:15 Brian Bill & Zach	HABS specific identification, relative abundance practice.
1:15-1:45 Pria and Teri	Communicating your data: The SoundToxin database and email alerts
1:45-2:15 Vera Trainer	Heterosigma project update
2:15 – 2:30	Break
2:30 - 3:00	Database log in and entry practice (bring your computer)
3:00 – 3:45	Supply gathering, turn in samples, continue plankton identification, and questions

3:45 – 4:00 ALL

Wrap up and questions